

Attention Weed and Seed Communities:

Announcing the next CCDO-Sponsored
No-Cost
Regional Training

October 3rd - 5th, 2006 - Los Angeles, CA
Marriott Hotel, Los Angeles Airport

(Includes Special Hotel Rate: $129/night - Ask for CADCA Room Block)

New! Two Training Tracks Now Available:

1) Core Competencies that Lead to Successful and Sustainable
Weed and Seed Communities

This intensive training will enhance your ability to plan, develop and carry out your Weed and Seed Strategy based on CCDO requirements. Back by popular demand, this training is a repeat of CADCA's National Coalition Institute's popular 2-day trainings from 2005.

2) Taking Your Weed and Seed Strategy to the Next Level: Mastering
Evaluation and Sustainability (New Advanced Course Offering)

Ideally suited for participants who have already taken the 2-day course listed above, this course will utilize tools such as logic models and sustainability plans to help your Weed and Seed Community strengthen its current efforts and ensure its long-term viability.

Registration is now open! Go to www.cadca.org and click on:

Each Weed and Seed site is encouraged to register four or more people to attend (to include weeding-focused and seeding-focused members).

There is no charge for registration or related materials. Participants are responsible for the cost of their travel and accommodations.

Presented by CADCA's National Coalition Institute.
